

Advanced Project Management

Purpose	The material is a rigorous study of the Guide to the Project Management Body of Knowledge (PMBOK® Guide), across its 10 areas of management. The goal of the course is to make the participant a better project manager and leader. Specifically participants will learn about the parameters that drive project success and also strategies to be applied when some of these parameters are missing.
Duration	Three days.
Intended Audience	This course is for project managers, and other significant stakeholders, who want to enhance their project management knowledge and maximize their effectiveness. Significant stakeholders include team leaders, project engineers and supervisors and program and project office support staff.
Learning outcomes	At the completion of this course, participants will be able to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Identify the factors that drive project success and those that constrain success, • Identify the relevance of the 5 process groups across the project lifecycle, • Apply key management techniques across the project lifecycle, • Enhance their preventive strategies to risks and project performance, • Identify a rigorous project planning approach across the 10 major areas, • Control projects using a range of project metrics and objective judgement, • Manage stakeholders across the project lifecycle.
Learning environment	Face to face presentation with supporting practical exercises during the course.
Course Materials	Notes, exercises and example tools/templates are provided.
Special Requirements	None.
Hours/PDU Information	The 21 hours of course effort can contribute to qualifying for Project Management Institute (PMI)® credentials or as 14 Technical Professional Development Units (PDUs) in maintaining a credential.