

Purpose	This course is designed to show how to practically implement project performance measurement using a standards' based Earned Value approach.
Duration	One day.
Intended Audience	This course is useful for program managers, project managers and other project leaders and stakeholders.
Learning Outcomes	At the completion of this course, participants will be able to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Understand the concepts of performance measurement • Know the measurements that result from applying performance measurement and their meaning and how to calculate them • Know the pre-requisite planning required to successfully implement Performance Measurement • Practically implement Performance Measurement within a project exercise • Effectively communicate the results of Performance Measurement via project reports
Course Content	The course focuses on 4 primary topics: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1) The key concepts of performance measurement and Earned Value 2) The tools and measures required to implement performance measurement and Earned Value 3) Applying performance measurement within a project environment 4) Evaluating the strengths and weaknesses of performance measurement
Course Delivery	This course is available to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Individuals through the Project Management Institute (PMI) Melbourne Chapter Short Course program. The schedule of courses and enrolments are made using the PMI Melbourne website, accessible from the Resources Menu on the Project Smart website • Corporate groups by request using the Contact Us link on the Project Smart website
Learning Environment	Face to face presentation with a major practical exercise during the course.
Course Materials	Notes and exercises are provided. Electronic files/examples are also distributed to students during and/or after the course
Hours/PDU Information	If you are not yet certified this course will provide 7 hours toward CAPM or PMP certification If you are a certified PMP this course will count for 7 PDU toward re-certification
Project Smart Pty Ltd is a PMI Registered Education Provider (REP) 	